

ADVANCING THE CLEAN ENERGY ECONOMY

JUNE 13 Workshop: Tools for reaching energy/climate protection goals

Venue: Glenwood Springs Community Center, 100 Wulfsohn Road

Welcome and Introductions. (8:30 – 8:45 a.m.)

Emcee Martha Cochran

Mayor Bruce Christensen

The challenge. (8:45 – 9:45 a.m.)

State and local energy goals

The regional energy picture and current targets: Dan Richardson

The state energy picture and Colorado Climate Action Plan – Seth Portner

What will it take to meet these goals?

Panel: Randy Udall, Auden Schendler, Seth Portner, Joani Matranga

BREAK (9:45 — 10:00 a.m.)

Tools for reaching aggressive energy goals. Successful programs in California are reducing energy consumption. Presentation by Craig Perkins, executive director, The Energy Coalition. (10:00 — 11:00 a.m.)

- The Energy Coalition approach: targets & results; strategic partnerships with utilities, business and communities; delivery programs; financing.
- Case studies: Solar Santa Monica, Palm Desert Set to Save.
- Elements of success
- Q & A

BREAK (11:00 — 11:15 a.m.)

Creating clean energy programs throughout our region. Group discussion facilitated by Craig Perkins. (11:15 a.m. — 12:00 p.m.)

- Existing resources and programs: Holy Cross, Xcel, CORE, GEO.
- What can we do in our region? How can we make that happen?
- Next steps, follow-up workshop.